

Hikvision Provides Hybrid DVR Solution for BMCE Bank in Morocco

BMCE Bank, one of the largest banks in Morocco with a network of 620 branches, needed to update its security management system with latest IP network-based access control system equipment, to protect its assets and people 24/7.

Location

Headquarter office in Casablanca, Morocco

Challenge

IP network-based surveillance digital recorders to ensure stable communications with 100+ surveillance cameras, wireless locking systems on 50 glass doors and other security management software to protect its assets and people, and also to provide safe working environment for its staff.

Solution

Hikvision DS-9016HFI-S - Embedded Hybrid DVR

- H.264 video compression
- 16-ch 4CIF, 8-ch 720P real-time IP video output
- Dual stream capability
- OggVorbis audio compression
- 16-ch synchronous playback
- Advanced motion detection
- Each interface supports up to 2TB (up to 8 SATA)
- 1024x768/60Hz, 1024x768/70Hz, 1280x1024/60Hz
- RJ45 10/100/1000M adaptive Ethernet interface
- Easy back-up to USB and CD/DVD-RW

DS-9016HFI-S

Partners

- CST Sécurité – Leading Moroccan security system integrator
- MAXXESS – eFusion security management software
- ASSA ABLOY Aperio™ - Aperio C100 wireless locking system

Testimonial

"...Important contributing factor to the success of this project has been the close working relationship of MAXXESS, ASSA ABLOY Aperio™ and Hikvision. This has significantly contributed to our ability to meet our client's demanding requirements."

Mr. Jamal Eddine Malaal
Managing Director of CST Sécurité